

English excerpts of Amanda Knox Prison Interceptions

November 13, 2007 (pages 93-98)

Edda Mellas: I don't know if the lawyer told you but it looks like it will take at least 15 or 20 days.

Amanda Knox: Yes. He said that I will stay here for sure until the end of November, which at that moment upset me a bit. The gentleman from the Consulate said that if they aren't acting in haste, it means they are at least trying to find out the truth rather than come up with something at random so it's actually better for me, because it means that they want to do the right thing, rather than make a mistake and keep you in your whole life ... so ok

Edda Mellas: It will be all right.

Amanda Knox: Yes.

Edda Mellas: They're still lying to the media.

Amanda Knox: I know. My cellmate always want to hear the news but they are always bad and I tell her: "I do not want to hear it!" She always wants to talk about it but I tell her I don't want to.

Edda Mellas: Don't talk about it. They said to be careful.

Curt Knox: Better not.

Amanda Knox: Yes, it's interesting. I have already said what I could say ...

Edda Mellas: (---) what you said you said, trust your lawyers, and tell them the truth that's all.

Curt Knox: I don't think you've met Carlo yet.

Amanda Knox: No, I met him. We talked for about 15 minutes. He was there when he was in front of the judge and told me not to answer to anything. It was then when I discovered that the police was accusing me of helping the murder. And, I said: "Are you kidding? I have helped you! I have helped you and you scared me to death". When I went to the police it was the worst things of my life, the worst experience of my life. A thousand times worse than any other experience of my life. I cannot explain to you how scared I was when I was in that room.

Curt Knox: Sure. Of course it was unpleasant

Edda Mellas: (---)

Amanda Knox: Yes , I told him they beat me and he said: "What? They didn't tell me that." And I: "Well, they did."

Edda Mellas: You just have to be careful about this because if we say ... We can say that the police threatened you but if we say that you were beaten, then, technically, we have to file a complaint against the police, which at this time would only make things worse. And especially because you have no visible signs ..

Amanda Knox: I know

Edda Mellas: It would then be difficult to prove it is true... The Consulate will take care of this later, so we have to work with the lawyer to understand when we are to talk about it. Amanda Knox: Yes , when I was with the police, the woman who beat me after I said what I believed was the truth, I said, "No, really! I don't think that's true, I'm very confused now. I only said that because I thought it could be true," and they said: "No no, you will remember it, you will remember it!". And I ...

Edda Mellas: (---)

Amanda Knox: Yes! I was at the Police Station and was saying: "I do not think it's right. I don't think what is happening is right." And they said : "No no, don't worry. You will come to that realization". The police acted with kindness towards me when they were taking me to jail and the following time I saw them, they accused me of participating in the murder. And I: "Wow! Justice ... ". Oh, my God! They made me very sad because I was thinking of when you would arrive here, I was thinking "I could show Perugia to my mom, I know Perugia, I know what to do, I know where to go ... I can introduce Raffaele to them. And now Raffaele is telling lies about me" and I feel ... " What's going on?". And I'm also confused by this... Raffaele ... I met him a couple of weeks ago and we went out together, as a couple, for about two weeks. We went out together very often . Outside of school, I spent most of my time with him. I met a friend once when I was not with him, but I went out almost exclusively with him. And he is so sweet to me. He is kind, caring. He cooks for me, he always wants to help me, he hugs me, he's always very nice.

Edda Mellas: He probably finds himself in the same situation ...

Amanda Knox: Yes, indeed . It's what I also think. But it's not right. I mean, I've told the truth, why can't he tell the truth as well? There seems to be something that scares him .

Curt Knox: And you will continue to tell the truth, exactly what the truth is. Nothing...

Amanda Knox: Yes. The only reason why I said the other things is that I was confused, I was seriously terrified.

Edda Mellas: And they told you that he changed the story again?

Amanda Knox: He hasn't changed the story. But it's probably because they were doing the very same thing to him as well.

Edda Mellas: He must ...

Amanda Knox: He has to tell the truth. Because if he tells the truth, I will be free. I mean, I don't think I would be free. Even if we were to return to the original version, I believe they would still keep us here.

Edda Mellas: Well, they will just have to collect more evidence.

Amanda Knox: Oh, do you know how long I will have to stay here before ... there is a period of time they can hold me here before the trial. Sooner or later they will have to take me to trial.

Curt Knox: One year.

Amanda Knox: One year

Edda Mellas: One year. I spoke to Diego.

Amanda Knox: I also asked him "Is there a length of time they can hold me here, they told me approximately one year." He replied: "One year seems a long time." And I: "Yeah, I know. I'm 20 years old" (---)
Edda Mellas: I do not think it will take that long.

Amanda Knox: No, me neither. (---)

Curt Knox: (---)

Amanda Knox: Even though the police can drag this for as long as they want. They want to accuse me, so...

Edda Mellas: The police in Perugia just wants to be able to say, "Look, we did well!"

Amanda Knox: I know, I know.

Edda Mellas: And Perugia is having quite an outcry. (---)

Amanda Knox: I'm not surprised that (---). Some are like that (---).

Edda Mellas: And there are many out there who flee (leave town)

Amanda Knox: Yes, I know. And I believe that none of the students who know me, no student, I am sure that none of the students who know me would say I am like that. I don't know if they have talked with someone but everyone who knows me, everyone would say "Amanda is not capable of doing such a thing."

November 17, 2007 (pages 60-61)

AMANDA: I was there where I watched them take my bag.

MOTHER: What's in your bag?

FATHER: School books

AMANDA: School books, a purse, the drops because I wasn't well (---) I don't think anything else. They took my purse, they looked at the school books but they didn't take them, however they'll give them back on Monday.

FATHER: I think the lawyers said they will hold on to the school books because they have to examine them.

AMANDA: Ah, yes.

MOTHER: Have you written anything important in the school books? For example, that you're studying Italian!

AMANDA: Ha ha ha.

MOTHER: I believe basically they're creating a big story saying they have some things instead now it comes out they don't have anything.

FATHER: We have to think that there's someone out there ... and they are trying to... basically... to save the city's image.

AMANDA: They'd save the city's image by getting the real murderer.

FATHER: Right!

AMANDA: They were so delighted when... I don't know, they were kissing each other, jumping with joy, and I was saying: "I don't know..."²

MOTHER: As the lawyers said, we can defend ourselves easily.

AMANDA: Yes, indeed. I mean, I didn't have a lawyer with me there (---).

MOTHER: But did you ask for a lawyer in that situation?

AMANDA: No. Because I didn't know I was suspected. They asked me questions and I responded to the questions. Then they said to me "No, you are a liar!" and me "What?"

MOTHER: Probably in that moment you should have asked for a lawyer!

FATHER: Eh, eh.

AMANDA: Then a lady asked me if I wanted a lawyer. I said yes and she started to laugh, because I wanted a lawyer there. And me ... "Ok"

MOTHER: Did you say to the lawyer that you'd asked for a lawyer in that moment?

AMANDA: Yes.

MOTHER: Good.

FATHER: So you talked with (---)?

MOTHER: So tomorrow it will probably be hard.

AMANDA: Tomorrow will be terrible.

MOTHER: But Monday ...

FATHER: Luciano will be here Monday.

MOTHER: Father will be here Tuesday. The other lawyer...3

AMANDA: When will you come back?

MOTHER: Probably in two weeks. Dianne said it's not easy to make bookings (---)

AMANDA: (---)

MOTHER: Yes.

November 20, 2007 (pages 188-192)

Amanda Knox: And, I wrote a letter... to the family ...

Curt Knox: Really?

Amanda Knox: I wanted to give it to you so that you could send it by e-mail which is much faster ...

Curt Knox: Uhm

Amanda Knox: But they ... ahhh

Curt Knox: I was reading something (---) there's this gentleman from the Embassy

Amanda Knox: Uhm uhm

Curt Knox: ...who sent by e-mail all the documents which he has also given to you... and I have to talk to your mother about this phone call...

Amanda Knox: Uhm uhm ... it lasts ten minutes

Curt Knox: Yes ten minutes... they heard it but they need an interpreter... because...

Amanda Knox: To be there

Curt Knox: ... so they can understand what you're saying, etc.

Amanda Knox: That's bullshit!

Curt Knox: Yes ... let's hope that ...

Amanda Knox: It's not (---)

Curt Knox: Your mother says that maybe they will allow you to get out faster because they are looking for this (---)

Amanda Knox: Yes ... because this (---) I know him, but not well ...

Curt Knox: He comes from the Ivory Coast ... or something like that?

Amanda Knox: I'm not sure ... he's ... I know him through ... I saw him once with the neighbors ... he once came with the neighbors ... and also ...

Curt Knox: Your neighbors from below?

Amanda Knox: Yes, the neighbors below

Curt Knox: Uhm uhm

Amanda Knox: Also, one evening when I went out downtown with the neighbors, we all went out together ...

Curt Knox: Ok

Amanda Knox: (---) and we talked, and then... I think I have seen him play basketball once... and I think I once saw him where I worked... but, I hardly know him...

Curt Knox: Has he ever been to...?

Amanda Knox: He's never been in my house before

Curt Knox: He's never been in the apartment

Amanda Knox: At least (meaning 'not') when I was there

Curt Knox: Ok

Amanda Knox: He was in the building but I have never let him inside my house, I don't have his phone number ... I don't even remember his name, I forgot it

Curt Knox: Ok

Amanda Knox: Because I have never talked to him, I practically don't know him

Curt Knox: Uhm uhm

Amanda Knox: Uh ... the lawyer... Luciano ...

Curt Knox: Luciano

Amanda Knox: ... He said that the police said I called him... but I don't even know him ... I mean ... I totally don't have anything to do with it.

Curt Knox: I know ... they are taking everything.... they said (---) that, that... two things I know, since last time we talked, are ... number one is that they are looking for ... this guy ... and they know that ...

Amanda Knox: Why?

Curt Knox: Because there is an imprint on the pillow which was under Meredith and ...

Amanda Knox: And it is his?

Curt Knox: Yes, and probably have linked it to him because, apparently, he was born in the Ivory Coast ...

Amanda Knox: Ok

Curt Knox: And, he was adopted by an Italian family

Amanda Knox: Ok

Curt Knox: And ... eh ... that's why his imprint is on record and, apparently (---) or, something like that, so...

Amanda Knox: Oh, my God!

Curt Knox: Yes ... so... in any case, they looked for him in his apartment but he has disappeared, and so they're looking for him...

Amanda Knox: Oh my God!

Curt Knox: Yes... so ... basically this is one of the positive things (---), so...

Amanda Knox: Oh, man!

Curt Knox: Why... do you know (---)?

Amanda Knox: Oh, no, no ... it's just that ... it's as if this whole thing was unreal for me, it's as if it was not happening to me... and hearing things like this it's like...

Curt Knox: Don't worry

Amanda Knox: Yes, I know, but I'm here as if I were not here... I keep thinking about a time when I'm out of here... it's like my whole life is out there

Curt Knox: ah ah ah

Amanda Knox: Ok ... and the only thought of knowing who could have done this... I know him in some way... I saw him, I spoke to him... a little earlier...

Curt Knox: Uhm uhm

Amanda Knox: Oh, my God!

Curt Knox: But, apparently, and this is what I heard... there is that imprint on the pillow and there is another mark (imprint) which was found in one of the bathrooms, I don't know which bathroom...

Amanda Knox: Also his?

Curt Knox: Yes, so ... so ...

Amanda Knox: Oh, my God!

Curt Knox: Yes... so ...

Amanda Knox: What an asshole!

Curt Knox: I don't know, don't know who he is

Amanda Knox: Yeah, I know, I know ... I mean, I barely know him, but ... it's pretty overwhelming evidence... I never invited him to my house before

Curt Knox: Do you think Meredith did so?

Amanda Knox: Ah... I know she knows him through Giacomo... so

Curt Knox: Is he one of the boys who lives below?

Amanda Knox: Yes, that was her boyfriend... so, I mean... maybe he could have said, I'm looking for Giacomo... can I come in? Or, something like that...

Curt Knox: Uhm

Amanda Knox: I don't know

Curt Knox: It's possible.

Amanda Knox: I mean, I know that she had seen him before, but I don't know why she let him in ... but ...

Curt Knox: (---)

Amanda Knox: He's screwed.

Curt Knox: Yes... so... and, another thing the newspapers have said, is that Raffaele had boxes and (---) and things as such...

Amanda Knox: Yes...

Curt Knox: Well, they said it was the next day when everyone (---) and he used them to clean off the knife and the shoes and I spoke with Carlo yesterday ...

Amanda Knox: Uhm

Curt Knox: He said, this great piece of news was completely false and (---) two or three days later

Amanda Knox: Yes, it's all bullshit...

Curt Knox: Yes, like everything else ... so, basically. They are looking... there is hope...

Amanda Knox: There is no reason not to be (---) It's only a matter of time

Curt Knox: Putting you under house arrest would be the minimum

Amanda Knox: Do you have no idea when it could happen?

Curt Knox: Well... we'll see... tomorrow...

Amanda Knox: Because I wouldn't... I really would like to spend Christmas with someone (---)

Curt Knox: Well tomorrow is... Wednesday ...

Amanda Knox: Uhm uhm

Curt Knox: and... Carlo and Luciano... they will meet at four o'clock with one of Carlo's partners.

Amanda Knox: And, I believe Carlo will come to talk to me in the morning

Curt Knox: I think that he may come to talk to you on Friday

Amanda Knox: Oh, that will be better ... so he will be able to tell me what's going on

Curt Knox: What else was I saying?... Luciano, Carlo and their partner will meet together on Wednesday, tomorrow, at four o'clock to create what they define will be a strategy for your defense

Amanda Knox: Ok

Curt Knox: I will then meet Carlo at six-thirty... tomorrow night

Amanda Knox: Ok

Curt Knox: I have nothing to say... so...

Amanda Knox: I said "I have nothing to say" and he said "why? Do you have something to hide?"

Curt Knox: Shut up!

Amanda Knox: Shut up! (---)

Curt Knox: I know

Amanda Knox: Honestly

Curt Knox: How did it go with Luciano?

Amanda Knox: It went well, he asked me about the evidence and the matter of the soap... he said "You bought the soap because Raffaele said that you bought the soap" and I replied "No, I didn't buy the soap" ... so OK, the knife, because the only thing we have to get us out of here is the knife that doesn't have Meredith's DNA but honestly I don't understand how Meredith's DNA can be there because I never took it to my house to use it... so... either (---)... or it was Raffaele who took it to my house but I don't believe this is possible either because he was at home with me and so he said we will wait (---)

Curt Knox: OK

Amanda Knox: Ehm... he asked me how well I knew... this other boy

Curt Knox: Yes

Amanda Knox: Rudy, this boy called Rudy

Curt Knox: They still haven't given a name yet

Amanda Knox: Oh, they're saying it on the TV

Curt Knox: You think I can understand Italian TV? Ha ha ha.

Amanda Knox: ha ha ha

Curt Knox: I couldn't even understand Luciano and Daniela...

Amanda Knox: Did he have to translate for you?

Curt Knox: Yes

Amanda Knox: Ok

Curt Knox: Well, she... knows Luciano

Amanda Knox: Ok

Curt Knox: and... so when we were talking with Luciano, Daniela started to say "Luciano says blah blah blah" (---)

Amanda Knox: (---)

Curt Knox: What's happening?

Amanda Knox: Ha ha ha what's happening?

Curt Knox: (---)

Amanda Knox: I understand

Curt Knox: (---)

Amanda Knox: ha ha ha

Curt Knox: (---)

Amanda Knox: And you don't understand what's happening ha ha ha.

Curt Knox: I look at him then I look at Daniela and also your mother (---)

Amanda Knox: ha ha ha

Curt Knox: And me "Can someone tell me what's happening"?

Amanda Knox: Ha ha ha it seems very... I mean I thought they would have depended a lot more on me but when he comes here he says "Let's see the evidence"... and me "OK, have fun"...

Curt Knox: They are also preparing a strategy

Amanda Knox: Hmm hmm

Curt Knox: And now the question is that there are reasons for concern and (---) like tomorrow... and Carlo ...

March 29, 2008 (pages 317-318)

Edda Mellas: But, then... Carlo said, he came over here that evening, right? He said that it made the news here... but it made no headlines anywhere else in the world, nor in the United States... because ...

Amanda Knox: Really ?

Edda Mellas: ... Basically ... here it's the day after... nothing

Amanda Knox: Nothing, I heard nothing more

Edda Mellas: And Carlo said that it is because all the rest is bullshit, the newspapers will not buy into this or write about it ...

Amanda Knox: Really?

Edda Mellas: Yes, it's all bullshit

Amanda Knox: Because, you know, I was a bit worried at first because, on one side I felt frustrated

Edda Mellas: Well, Carlo said you took it quite well, that you said it's only another lie!

Amanda Knox: That 's okay ... because it's a lie, but I was worried about you ...

Edda Mellas: no

Amanda Knox: ... I didn't know how you would have reacted and I wasn't sad, I was just very disappointed

Edda Mellas: yes, I know, I know

Amanda Knox: because I thought he was about to confess, because when I heard the news I yelled 'How nice!' I was jumping up and down, 'I'm going home! I'm going home!' But then... ohhh

Edda Mellas: No, I think everyone is... as I said, in the States no one talks about it because it's trash... everyone knows... he seems a poor, desperate boy

Amanda Knox: Yes, in fact I even feel sorry for him because he is so desperate to point the finger at other people. It annoys me because that's what the judge and the prosecutor want to hear ...

Edda Mellas: And I don't even know if the Public Prosecutor has something to do with this, but ... Carlo said that it's nothing ... first of all it doesn't make any sense and, secondly, there is no evidence supporting this assertion (statement)

Amanda Knox: Another thing I was worried about, it's when I was talking to Carlo and Luciano the first time, and they told me (asked me) if I wanted to change my defense in some way and (to which) I replied 'What do you mean ... do I want to change my defense? No, it's crap!' So, I was so frustrated because of that, because I was wondering why they were asking me that ... there is nothing true, so, then they kind of joked, telling me that maybe I was frustrated to find myself still here in jail, then I said, 'Look, try to do your best, do your best to make sure I get out of here one day, make sure this happens... otherwise... remember that I am innocent... so don't ever ask me such a thing anymore!' I did not like the fact that I was asked this... of course. I told them to keep it in mind!

Edda Mellas: yes...

Amanda Knox: Yes... so...

Edda Mellas: So... in reality now... what did Carlo say?... That evening he didn't look very happy, he said he it's simply some other bullshit they have to face, but the next day, he told me, 'guess? Nothing in any newspaper' and I called him and said to him that there's nothing in the States either...

Edda Mellas: Well... you can't yet know what will happen, but it's not as bad as when it first came out

Amanda Knox: Ok

Edda Mellas: I'm really rather optimistic, so...

Amanda Knox: Yes... I feel so, but (---) I am very disappointed, it's a big (---)

Edda Mellas: I know

Amanda Knox: Gee! I can forgive the Public Prosecutor for not knowing better, but if Rudy was there, he's just trying to save his ass

Edda Mellas: But ... he's not saving your ass, that's the problem, that is, he's pointing the finger, but how do you explain all that shit... there is no evidence that you were there...

Amanda Knox: Yes, and if he explains this by saying that he was protecting me, it would be bullshit, because he doesn't know me

Edda Mellas: No, he doesn't know you... and he doesn't know Raffaele

Amanda Knox: He doesn't know Raffaele at all, it wouldn't make any sense, so...

Edda Mellas: Yes

April 5, 2009 (pages 407-413)

Amanda Knox: The only reason why the media is so much against me it's because the judge is using this thing as an excuse not to put me under house arrest, for instance, I think ... that's what I think

Edda Mellas: But, they also...

Amanda Knox: Clearly they haven't done anything because I'm still here

Edda Mellas: Yes, but they did speak again about house arrest, but they have to examine the other statement made by Rudy

Amanda Knox: Yes, I know

Edda Mellas: Did Luciano tell you about it?

Amanda Knox: Yes. There are three other statements where he says I am not involved in any way, that I was not there.

Edda Mellas: But the judge at the beginning had said those statements could not be taken into account, but in Rome they say that...

Amanda Knox: Really? Because I spoke to Luciano and asked him to be more specific about their content and he said that if I'm still here, obviously... , but what did really happen?

Edda Mellas: This is the general impression, that they have not thrown them all away with the ordinance (pre-trial detention order)... but when they will make their motion for judgement they will not be able to overturn everything, however nonetheless, grave errors were made in Perugia, two huge mistakes: one is the statement given by Rudy in Germany, in which he was saying you were not there, it needs to be admitted as evidence and before they did not accepted it (---)

Amanda Knox: (---)

Edda Mellas: Second thing: your statement, the one which you say you have released while being tortured, must be rejected

Amanda Knox: Really?

Edda Mellas: Yes!

Amanda Knox: Really? Wow! Wonderful.

Edda Mellas: (---) They cannot use it because it was unlawful

Amanda Knox: Wow (---) So, basically, they have nothing against me ...

Amanda's Aunt: (---)

Amanda Knox: Yes, obviously, it was unlawful, for God's sake! Oh, this gives me some degree of comfort, because he did not tell me that. I thought: bullshit...

Edda Mellas: We may have lost the war, but we won two important battles

Amanda Knox: Oh,... this is a very important thing

Amanda Knox: Clearly this was not the war, but now we are moving forward (---)

Edda Mellas: It is very important, very important

Amanda Knox: (---) because I am not interested (---)

Edda Mellas: In fact, Carlo will speak with the judge this morning and one of the things he will tell him is: 'Look, today you have the computers... and there's nothing in the memory... so ... the same electrical overload burned the three computers, and it's attributed to an accident ... it's not attributed to you!'

Amanda Knox: Yes, good, because I have not touched my computer

Edda Mellas: I know

Amanda Knox: They took everything which was inside, all my stuff, everything I had was in there (meaning, her bedroom)

Edda Mellas: Yes... (---) In order to accuse someone ... And, about the official report which was stating all they have done with the computer... Carlo had it translated... He then called me and... (- - -) From the very beginning all they did with the computers was wrong. It's not what you do when you're trying to... look inside a computer... and they will likely get him to write a report... well, Chris's friends ... it's not...

Amanda Knox: yes...

Edda Mellas: (—) to write a report which shows, step by step, the mistakes made by the police and he says that we can use it and put it into evidence

Amanda Knox: Good (- - -)

Amanda's Aunt: Chris is taking care of that.

Amanda Knox: I hope to get my computer back, all my stuff is in it... honestly, you can check and do whatever with my computer but, they took everything which was in it, all my stuff.... bastards... all my music... bastards... all my photos

Edda Mellas: Chris is also asking to be able to inspect the hard drive to try to salvage something on his own, if he manages ...

Amanda Knox: Of course, as for the photo... it doesn't matter.... Ok, so, good... basically they have nothing against me... hopefully... today they will speak with the judge ... I know she was a bitch with them... I'm sorry!

Edda Mellas: Why? Did Luciano say so?

Amanda Knox: Luciano said that... he was talking to me and said... 'well, I could talk to the judge but she is rather... '

Edda Mellas: Well, Carlo isn't saying she is a bitch, he said she is very accurate, (careful) that she follows the procedures step by step... very orderly Amanda Knox: Well... let's hope so.... At least she cannot be... that is, corrupt ...

Edda Mellas: Yes, yes .

Amanda Knox: As far as I know no one is corrupt...

Edda Mellas: Yes, yes... as for the other news: it seems that the police have messed up the crime scene, have you heard of this?

Amanda Knox: I know they moved some things

Edda Mellas: They have completely contaminated the crime scene

Amanda Knox: So, where was it reported? Edda Mellas: It's all been reported in the media

Amanda Knox: I have not heard anything through the media

Edda Mellas: It's been horrible, around the area of Raffaele's birth town... some TV channel got the video.

Amanda Knox: Yes, I've heard... it's been shown on TV in its entirety and I (---)

Edda Mellas: It's disgusting... can you imagine Meredith's family...

Amanda Knox: Did they actually show Meredith's body?

Edda Mellas: Yes

Amanda Knox: Oh, my God! I have not seen it

Edda Mellas: No, it was not aired here. They seized it

Amanda Knox: Ok, good...

Amanda's Aunt: The police took care of that. But, it's been broadcasted twice

Amanda Knox: It's horrible!

Edda Mellas: And Meredith's family....

Amanda Knox: Oh....

Edda Mellas: They will make a formal complaint, we will also make a formal complaint for disclosure of inappropriate information.... this is wrong.

Amanda Knox: But, who gave it to him?

Edda Mellas: This we don't know

Amanda Knox: Because, Luciano said it was Raffaele's dad ... but I said: it can't be true!

Amanda's Aunt: It's a guess

Amanda Knox: But we want to make sure that... in the end we will write this letter of reprimand ... we want to ensure that it is known it wasn't us, and that we don't like that this thing has been disclosed... another thing which was leaked is that Meredith might have been drunk.

(This statement cannot have been made by Amanda, it must have been made by her mom.)

Amanda Knox: I don't know. They haven't said anything to me about it.

Edda Mellas: There was a big announcement that she was almost in an alcohol induced coma

Amanda Knox: Really?

Edda Mellas: Yes

Amanda's Aunt: Her blood alcohol content was three times the level allowed

Amanda Knox: Good God!

Edda Mellas: Yes, in a drunken stupor... and would have had no idea... only (---)

Amanda Knox: Oh... what the hell happened?

Edda Mellas: I don't know, that is what it's been said now, although her friends say she only had a beer or so, Amanda Knox: But this isn't even close to....

Edda Mellas: But you have to see how long it took...

Amanda Knox: What the hell happened? Good God... so that's the amount of alcohol the report states?

Edda Mellas: We don't know, it was also leaked by someone else... it wasn't....

Amanda's Aunt: Proved

Edda Mellas: No, it has not been verified

Amanda's Aunt: It was reported by some (---) no one knows if this is true or not.... because

Amanda Knox: (---)

Edda Mellas: Well... Carlo says the information came from other doctors who worked on the case, but I don't know ... her parents are also up in arms because of this, the situation is nothing but worsening

Amanda Knox: I don't understand why ...
